

So you want to be a BUSINESS MANAGER?

Scoular is seeking entrepreneurial individuals interested in agricultural commodity merchandising careers. Scoular's Business Manager Development Program is rotational and immerses participants in a challenging, fast-paced environment, buying, selling, and transporting grain and other feed and food ingredients worldwide.

Responsibilities:

- Buy and sell grain or other feed and food ingredients
- Learn logistics and supply chain management
- Develop an operational understanding of risk management
- Assist management in the preparation of financial forecasts

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree; agriculture or business majors preferred
- Strong mathematical and analytical skills
- Outstanding skills in communication, customer service, problem solving, and sales
- Self-motivated, independent
- Strong understanding of agricultural commodity markets preferred
- Willingness to relocate

Scoular is an equal opportunity employer.

