

So you want to do a MERCHANDISING INTERNSHIP?

Scoular is seeking entrepreneurial individuals who want to learn more about agricultural commodity merchandising. Interns will be immersed in buying, selling, handling, and transporting grain or other food and feed ingredients worldwide while working in a challenging, fast-paced environment.

Responsibilities:

- Assist merchandisers with buying and selling grain or other food and feed ingredients
- Learn about logistics and supply chain management
- Develop an operational understanding of risk management
- Project development

Requirements:

- Pursuing a bachelor's degree; agriculture or business majors preferred
- Junior status preferred
- Strong mathematical and analytical skills
- Self-motivated, independent
- Outstanding communication, customer-service, problem-solving, and sales skills
- Strong interest in agricultural commodity markets preferred

Scoular is an equal opportunity employer.

