Benefits consumers want. Partnerships you need.

Let us help you tell your brand story. Pets are part of the family and owners are looking for ways to diversify their pets' diets. We are dedicated to working with you to understand your needs and the needs of your pet food consumers—finding the right ingredients to reinforce your claims.

Pet Health

Digestive health, dental care, and immunity diets—our diverse ingredients support these and other important nutrition and pet health priorities.

Ancient Grains, Plant-Based, High-Protein & More

We have deep category expertise, a vast portfolio of nutrient-dense, functional offerings and tailored strategies to ensure supply grows with your demand for on-trend ingredients.

Non-GMO & Organic

Naturally non-GMO, Non-GMO Project Verified or Organic Certified—Scoular provides ingredients to answer the call for simple, wholesome pet food.

Traceability

With our logistical expertise, we answer the demand for supply-chain transparency.

Sustainable & Upcycled

From products with sustainable environmental benefits to being a proud member of SEDEX, we are focused to do our part responsibly and make a positive impact. And, we partner with our customers to find sustainable solutions for their needs.
