

Popcorn

Scoular is a leading handler, processor, and exporter of popcorn. We strive to offer top quality products and provide timely services to our customers.

Applications

- Used as a snack food, designed to pop when heated

Varieties

- Mushroom and white & yellow butterfly varieties
- Uniform in size and color through processing assurance

Growing Attributes

- Grown in key high quality geographic regions with minimal disease, weed, and insect pressure
- Typical planting: April/May
- Typical harvest: October/November

Certifications Available

- Non-GMO Project Verified and Organic

Varieties Available

	Yellow Butterfly	White Butterfly	Mushroom
Attributes	Airy, fluffy type that yields multiple shapes, high expansion	Small, tender kernels, high expansion	Durable flake that yields large, round kernels
Uses	Movie theaters, sporting events, concessions snack bags, jars, microwave	Retail packaging, bags, and jars	Coated popcorn (i.e., caramel, chocolate, cheese), gourmet, snack stands, gift baskets

Typical Analysis

	Butterfly	Mushroom
Pop Expansion Ratio	40.0 - 48.0	30.0 - 36.0
Moisture	12.5% - 14.2%	12.5% - 14.2%
Kernels Per 10 Grams	53.0 - 63.0	58.0 - 66.0
Test Weight	66.0 - 69.0	66.0 - 69.0
Damaged/ Broken Kernels	<1%	<1%
Aflatoxin	<20 ppb	<20 ppb

Butterfly

Mushroom

Packaging

- 50 lb paper or sewed poly woven (BOPP) bags
 - Custom
 - Plain or Scoular brand
- Bulk Tote
 - 2,000 - 2,500 lbs
- Transportation / Delivery: Container, Truck, LTL

Facility Highlight

Popcorn passes through several processing machines to remove foreign materials and ensure kernels are uniform in size and color:

- screen cleaner
- color sorter
- gravity table
- magnets
- destoner
- metal detectors
- aspirator

Climate controlled storage and shipments are packaged at time of order.

Certifications:

- SQF Food Safety Program
- SQF Food Quality Program
- National Organic Program/
Canada Organic Regime (NOP/COR)
- Non-GMO Project Verified
- Kosher Certified

For more information or samples, contact your Scoular representative:

IPgrains@scoular.com | (612) 335-8205

